

Job Title: MS English Language Arts/Social Studies Teacher

Department: Faculty

Reports to: K-8 Director

We are seeking a dynamic and collaborative part-time or full-time middle school English Language Arts and/or Social Studies for the 23-24 school year. The MS ELA/Social Studies teacher will report directly to the K-8 Director and will be responsible for developing curriculum, designing lessons, and engaging students in high-quality English and social studies learning. The ideal candidate has at least five years of experience teaching humanities to middle school aged students. Candidates should be familiar with differentiated instruction so that each child has the opportunity to do work that is appropriately challenging. Further, interested applicants should be knowledgeable in their field, passionate about working with children, and have experience with project-based learning.

- Create units and lesson plans that prioritize student engagement and individual needs using student-centered, inquiry-based approaches.
- Prepare lessons and develop curricula that will engage students while employing a variety of teaching methods and differentiated instruction to engage a range of learners.
- Maintain accurate records of student growth and communicate progress with families.
- Create a classroom culture that is engaging, student-centered, and effectively managed.
- Participate in outdoor education trips throughout the year.
- Engage in regular supervisory duties including recess.
- Attend faculty meetings and professional development days.
- Maintain professional competence through in-service education activities provided by the school and through self-selected professional growth activities.

Qualification Requirements:

- Minimum 5 years of experience in upper elementary or middle school education with a passion for the humanities. Master's degree preferred
- Interest in outdoor education and project-based learning
- Strong interpersonal skills, flexibility, the ability and desire to work collaboratively, and dedication to continuously developing and practicing cultural competence in one's teaching are also essential.

Compensation and Benefits:

Steamboat Mountain School offers a rich and comprehensive benefits package. If this position is hired as a half time employee, the salary will be reduced accordingly with a reduced benefits package.

- Salary range $40,000 - 55,000 depending on experience and schedule worked
- Summer vacation, most holidays, and all school vacations
- Medical including short term disability for full time only
- Dental for full time employment only
- Vision for full time employment only
- Retirement contribution match after one year of service for full time only
- Tuition remission benefits after two years of service for full time only

In order to apply, email your resume and cover letter to careers@steamboatmountainschool.org. No phone calls. Steamboat Mountain School is an Equal Opportunity Employer.