

Job Title: Full Time Upper School Science Teacher

Department: Faculty

Reports to: Assistant Head of School

We are seeking an outstanding full time Upper School Chemistry and Physics teacher to join our team of faculty beginning in August of 2024.

Steamboat Mountain School's science department exists to generate appreciation and curiosity for the natural world. SMS science students learn to observe, investigate, and reflect as a way to gain knowledge of the natural world. Science teachers focus on building fluency with inquiry based learning, scientific communication, intentional investigation, and proficiency in content based assessments.

We are looking for candidates who have a professional educational background, physics and chemistry content knowledge, and a passion for teaching and learning. Further, successful candidates ideally also possess familiarity with Understanding by Design, Project Based Learning, and an interest in inquiry based education. Those with experience in outdoor education, travel programs, or residential schools are strongly encouraged to apply.

Specific job responsibilities include:

- Teaching 2 sections of Chemistry, 1 section of Physics, and 1 section of another science or math class
- Leading outdoor trips and activities
- Residential duties
- Potentially leading an international trip for a month in the Spring

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in a related field, Master's Degree preferred
- At least five years of teaching experience
- Experience with either outdoor or travel education
- A collaborative and self-motivated attitude
- Sense of humor, flexibility, optimism, and a growth mindset

Compensation and Benefits:

Steamboat Mountain School offers a rich and comprehensive benefits package for full time employees.

- Salary range, $35,000 - $55,000 DOE
- School paid Medical insurance including short term disability
- Dental
- Vision
- Retirement contribution match after one year of service
- Tuition remission benefits after two years of service
- Approximately eight weeks of summer holiday and all school traditional holidays
- On-campus housing may be available and will be part of the total compensation package
